GEORGE W. HOGSHEAD JOINS THE AMICUS GROUP

Canton, Ohio – February 11, 2008 - The Amicus Group, Inc. (TAG) is pleased to announce that George W. Hogshead has joined our team of senior and experienced professionals providing value-added services and solutions to our growing client base. Mr. Hogshead will serve as our Director and Senior Advisor for Integrated Justice Services. In this role he advises and supports our justice agency clients in our mutual efforts to leverage and enhance the integration of existing justice business processes, practices, and technology investments of individual agencies and across the justice enterprise.

Mr. Hogshead is a senior professional with 40 years of experience as an executive-level manager in the private and public sectors, and as a consultant and advisor to justice, public safety and internal security agencies and jurisdictions of governments throughout the world. He specializes in governance reform, organization restructure and modernization, business process reengineering, and the deployment of technology solutions to integrate and improve the operating effectiveness and efficiency of the organizations. Mr. Hogshead has directed and/or participated in over 155 successful projects and programs of agencies of international, federal, state and local government.

“We are extremely pleased to have George join our company. His experience, insight, and unselfish commitment to improving the administration of justice through technology is widely acknowledged”, said Peter T. Zackaroff, President and Managing Director. “George is another example of how we are attracting the best in the industry and further validates our mission to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of courts and justice agencies through open source applications.”

Mr. Hogshead holds a BS degree in Management and Accounting from the College of Business of Florida State University. He was appointed the first Director of State Judicial Information Systems (SJIS) for the Supreme Court of Florida under the Court Reform Act (Article V/1970) of the State Constitution. He also served as the Director of the National State Judicial Information Systems (SJIS) Program managed by the SEARCH Group and funded by the U.S. Department of Justice. Mr. Hogshead is a Certified Court Executive Officer and graduate Fellow (1975) of the Court Executive Development Program of the Institute for Court Management (ICM) and the National Center for State Courts (NCSC).

Mr. Hogshead was a Founding Member of the Integrated Justice Information Systems (IJIS) Institute, and served as the first Treasurer and as a member of the Board of Directors from 2000 to 2005. He also served as an Industry Advisor to the Global Infrastructure / Standards Working Group (GISWG) Committee [2001-2002], GLOBAL Justice Network Committee. The committee serves as an Advisory Body to the Office of the Attorney General, U.S. Department of Justice.

Mr. Hogshead has held executive management positions with public and private sector organizations including that of Partner with the Consulting Division of Deloitte & Touche, Certified Public Accountants; Partner with the Consulting Division of Touche Ross & Co. Certified Public Accounts; Vice President with the Seafirst Division of Bank of America; General Manager with PRC Public Services; and CJIS Planner with the Office of the Governor of the State of Florida.
